

Application Process...

As you prayerfully discern God's calling on your life, and if you desire a peaceful, rural setting where you will be warmly welcomed and appreciated, Fairview may be the answer to your prayers and ours.

If your heart and mind are leading you to enter the search process, we would like to hear from you.

A candidate will be considered when we have received all of the following:

- Letter of Introduction
- 3 to 5 References—please include personal and professional
- Resume
- Link(s) to view two or three sermons or other teaching venues
- Questions

1. What aspect of ministry do you most enjoy?
2. What would excite you about being the pastor of Fairview Reformed Church?
3. Have you been a part of a community where the agricultural industry and out of doors activities have been a big part of the culture? How do you see yourself fitting into our rural community?

Send your application material to:

Tina Stier, Search Team Chairperson
tcstier@gmail.com

For additional information or to ask questions, please contact Tina at the above email address.

We will accept applications until a qualified candidate has been selected.

Incomplete profile packages will not be considered until all requested material has been received.